They didn't attempt to end game British decree, or evening return their families' estate. Rather, armed with blunderbusses and an insinuate knowledge of Mayo's mountains, bogs and rivers, these outlaws put-upon admiration and power to reappropriate the affluence of Ireland's British landlords. Affect England's Robin Hood ahead them, they robbed the productive and gave to the piteous. Irish legends before long developed nigh their ferocity, acumen and unselfishness.
